

IPSG MEETING ON:

INTERNATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE OF NAXALBARI

If we look into the history of India, we will find that there were numerous rightful and heroic peasant uprisings against the feudal oppression and foreign exploitation. These struggles for liberation and progress of the Indian people failed mainly due to lack of correct revolutionary leadership. Such as 1857, "The War of Independence" and so on until the year 1967, the great turning-point in the history of India, when for the first time the Indian peasantry revolted against the feudal landlord class in NAXALBARI Area under the correct leadership of CPI(M-L) led by Comrade Charu Majumdar based on the Scientific revolutionary theory of Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse Tung's thought. The flames which have been burning for centuries in the hearts of 600 million oppressed Indian people, to-day has taken the form of NAXALBARI and has spread in every corner of our beloved Country to end - oppression and exploitation once and for all.

NAXALBARI uprising, is a continuation of THE GREAT PROLETARIAN CULTURAL REVOLUTION of China, which brought forth its radical rupture from the revisionist policies of Communist Party of India and Communist Party of India (Marxist). The Indian people under the correct revolutionary leadership of Com. Charu Majumdar, for the first time in the history of India have unmasked and exposed the treachery of the revisionists like Danga, Jyoti Basu and Sundaraya etc. who betrayed the Indian people's revolutionary struggle right from the beginning of the formation of the Communist Party of India in late 1920's after the October Revolution in Russia. The revisionist leadership though calling themselves Communist completely refused to put the Universal truth of Marxism-Leninism into practice in the condition of India and took the "so-called - Parliamentary road to Socialism". This was done only to class collaborate with the feudal landlords and comprador bourgeoisie and to confuse the oppressed people of our country by asking for few reforms. Com. Charu Majumdar has correctly pointed out this confusion, when he said, "In this age revisionism is a counter revolutionary ideology".

The Significance of Naxalbari uprising is a great hope not only for the Indian people but also for the revolutionary people all over the world. To-day, India is used as an imperialist base by the U.S. imperialism and its main accomplice Soviet Social imperialism to divert and subvert the National liberation struggle of all its neighbouring countries. The most recent and living example is the creation of the "puppet" state of "Bangla-Desh". The revolutionary people in Burma, Malaya, Pakistan and the oppressed masses all over the world have their eyes set on our vast Country and are waiting for the -Liberation of India and the Liberation of the people of the World.
