

BASOC GENERAL MEETING

1 PM SUNDAY MARCH 4

PRECITA CENTER, 534 PRECITA AVE.

SAN FRANCISCO

CHILD CARE WILL BE PROVIDED

for arrangements, call
282-2636

AGENDA

The meeting will begin with presentations dealing with these questions:

- 1) What is the main contradiction within BASOC?
- 2) What should be the role of practice within BASOC now?
- 3) What level of unity do we need and why?
- 4) What kind of organization do we want now?
- 5) What effect should the organization have on us as individuals?
(e.g., what responsibility should we have to BASOC, what should be the role of criticism/self-criticism, etc.)
- 6) What mistakes have we made so far?
What things have we done right?

The purpose of this general meeting is to carry out the political debate on these questions. The next general meeting will be devoted to political decision-making on proposals.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

***The 3rd World Women's Alliance is sponsoring 2 events for International Women's Day:

On Thursday, March 8, there will be a picket in front of the South African Consulate from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm.

On Sunday, March 11, from 3 to 5:30 pm at Queen Ada Hall, there will be an educational-cultural program including singing, speakers, etc. A woman from ZANU will speak. One of the purposes of this event is to kick off a material aid campaign focussing on the needs of women and children in Southern Africa.

***CULTURE FORUM: A Little Piece of Heaven—The Myth and the Reality of Consumerism.
at The Farm, Potrero and Army, San Francisco
March 16, 7:30—10:30 pm.

HELP WANTED

***Inkworks Printing/Publishing Collective needs a full-time person skilled in presswork or camera-stripping. Requires political unity with developing Marxist-Leninist anti-dogmatist, anti-revisionist trend. Preference given to minorities and women. Contact Inkworks at 240 Telegraph, Oakland, or call 652-7111.

This newsletter was delayed by technical problems, including delays in obtaining space for the general meeting and late submission of discussion papers for the general meeting. Because of these problems, the papers were distributed through the small groups. They will also be available just before the general meeting. We apologize for any problems this may cause.